This training is a 72 hr 'Permaculture Design Certification' for everyone who wants to apply Permaculture principles in their life, including an extra focus on the Human aspect. Agriculture and farming are only one aspect of this concept, and often projects fail, due to the human factor.

The course will cover different petals of the Permaculture flower and especially the Human permaculture facilitated by the concept's creator Bernard Alonso who wrote a book on the topic. We will also be accompanied with a participating 'flying team' of practitioners who already hold permaculture certification.

Participants will gain fundamental understanding of permaculture design to apply anywhere on this planet in different climates, since Permaculture is a way to duplicate natural mechanisms taught by 3.8 billions years of experience. You will be able to design integrated productive ecosystems that are capable of meeting our human needs, whilst benefiting and respecting the environment.

It includes the application of permaculture principles to food production, home design, construction, energy conservation and generation, and explores alternative economic structures and teamwork strategies supporting permaculture solutions.

Welcome to Dune Alaya !

We provide a quiet ecolodge experience of living in traditional Balinese wooden structures, surrounded by a lush green oasis, and offering many ecological and local heritage visits nearby.

The facilities include a dining area, multifunctional hall, and swimming pool. Breakfast is included.

Dune Alaya is located at the foot of the hills which are ideal for short hikes to nearby temples, and just a 10min walk / 2min drive from the coral reef beaches, restaurants, and shopping area of Pemuteran's Main Street.

During the Permaculture Design course, we will also offer a range of activities in the bioregion, to connect to the local context.

Airport pickup, on site massage, etc. available on request. Guests are welcome to make booking before/after the course if they wish to stay longer.

We look forward to making your stay a memorable one.
